

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

About the Program

The Hospitality Program helps students get ready for entry-level jobs, advance in their careers in the industry, or smoothly transition to four-year colleges to finish their Bachelor's degree.

Our program has a strong transfer rate to The Collins School of Hospitality Management at Cal Poly Pomona.

The program offers introductory and advanced classes to prepare students for successful leadership roles within the industry. Classes include the following:

- Introduction to Hospitality Management
- Food and Beverage Management
- Purchasing, Cost Controls and Menu Planning
- Hospitality Marketing Management
- Hospitality Law
- Human Resources
- Event Planning

Highlights of the Program

- Instructors with national and international industry experience
- Instructors with affiliations with industry professionals
- Instructors possess expertise in various areas, including but not limited to law, sales and marketing, events, and tourism.

Degree and Certificate Programs

- Hotel Management AS
- Food Service AS
- AS for Transfer in Hospitality Management
- Hotel Management Certificate
- Food Service Management Certificate
- Certificate in Event Planning
- Certificate in Hospitality Facilities Management